

Necessary Observations in the Genethliacal
Part of Astrology

By William Lilly
~ transcribed by Sue Ward ~

© Copyright 2009 Sue Ward and The Tradition Library.

All rights reserved.

Any unauthorised copying, distribution, or publication will constitute an infringement of copyright.

This copy is for personal study only, it may be printed once and may not be distributed in any way or for any reason, or published in any form without the permission of The Tradition Library.

For permission for any of the above or further information please contact The Tradition Library at contact@traditionlibrary.com

Necessary Observations in the Genethliacal Part of Astrology

Extracted from Merlinus Anglicus by William Lilly, London 1678.

(Transcription and comments by Sue Ward)

Another in the series of transcribed extracts of Lilly's lesser known works. All too often we consider the almanac to be inferior to the book and yet within the pages of Merlinus Anglicus can be found some very important pieces. In this case, Lilly deals with the nativity and provides a detailed view of essential dignity and debility, that is, strength and weakness. He offers explanations of strong or weak malefics and benefics, and the interpretation of their combinations whether strong or weak. This is yet another point upon which the modern practitioner falters for lack of reliable information.

Again, Lilly offers his wisdom as he nears the end of his life and we may sense the urgency of his mission if we read closely.

Sue Ward

Necessary Observations in the Genethliacal Part of Astrology

by William Lilly

1. Observe the natures or Analogy of the Planets, also their heavenly state, and that in two respects, (1) As to their fortitudes, (2) Conjunction or Aspects, (3) Their earthy state or Determination, and that in several cases. (1) As to their Position, (2) Dominion, (3) Exaltation, and by these distinctly considered, you may judge of the Planets amity or enmity in any Nativity, Direction, Revolution, Profection, or Transit.
2. Note, That Saturn is extremely cold and dry, Jupiter is remissly hot and dry, the Sun is meanly hot and dry, Venus is hot and moist, Mercury is remissly cold and dry, the Moon is meanly cold and moist.
3. If Saturn be in Aries his driness is increased, and his coldness abated, or he is intently dry, or remissly cold. In Taurus he acts with a double force, viz. he is intently cold and dry; in Gemini he is remissly cold and dry; in Cancer he is intently cold, but remissly dry: so that if Saturn Aspect the Ascendant from thence, more of cold and driness, than of cold and moisture will thereby flow, because the Planets elementary Natures are so formally, but the Signs by accident Determination, & fis de cæteris.¹
4. A Planet in his House, as the Sun in Leo, retains his own Nature well affected in his influence; but if in his detriment, as in Aquary, he is then ill affected or depraved. If he be only peregrine, as in Taurus, he is meanly affected as to good or evil, viz. neither essentially strong nor weak. If he be in his fall, as in Libra, he flags in his motion, and is as a man indisposed or uneasie: therefore a Planet in his fall or detriment effects no good to the Native; if any, 'tis depraved, and consequently dangerous and pernicious.
5. A planet direct and swift in motion, vel contrà, is as those very terms import, therefore their direct motion, celerity, orientality (if Superiors) and their Position *supra terram*² makes their effects more manifest and powerful.
6. Aries ascending gives a martial wit and inclination; but if the Sun be in partile Trine or Sextile to it, or its Lord, or in conjunction of Jupiter, who may be in platick Sextile or Trine to either of them, then 'tis made Solar and Jovial, but chiefly Solar. Understand the like in other Signs ascending according to their natures, and the natures of those Planets that behold them.
7. Observe chiefly the nature and heavenly state of any Planet, for a Planet may be considered in relation to the Portents or signification of any Sign or mansion of Heaven thus, (1) As to Position, (2) Dominion, (3) Exaltation, (4) Aspect, (5)

¹ Comment: Lilly begins his lecture regarding the changes that take place in a planet according to where in the Zodiac it is placed. He continues this theme throughout by way of essential dignity or its lack.

² "Above the earth".

- Opposition thereunto, and (6) Triplicity: as for example, Saturn in Aries must be considered as martialized and solarized, because Aries is the House of Mars, and the Exaltation and Triplicity of the Sun, and so in others.
8. The Ascendant (viz. the sign thereof) in any Nativity is to be observed, also the Lord of the Ascendant and his Position, a Planet posited therein: all which are to be considered by the Artist or Student as to the portents or signification of the Ascendant.
 9. The twelfth House rather than the sixth of a Figure signifies diseases, and all manner of corporal affliction: yet a Planet in the sixth house shall be cosignificator, as being in opposition to the twelfth house.³
 10. From the Lord of the Ascendant, or any other house proceeds the chief virtue or most powerful part as to the signification of that house: if Saturn and the Sun be in Conjunction in Leo in the tenth house, the latter being nearest to the Cusp thereof, then the Native arrives to some degree of Dignity or honour from the Analogy, Position, Dominion, and Fortitude of the Sun, as also his propinquity to the Cusp. But Saturn being of a contrary nature, and averse to what the Sun portends analogically, also hating the place of his residence, and partly afflicting the Sun, will therefore cause some unhappy misfortune to arise and cloud the glory promised by the Sun at least in the end. But Saturn in Conjunction with the Sun in Libra upon the Mid-heaven in any persons Geniture, assuredly produces Honour to the Native, by reason of the great Dignities of Saturn; and this the rather, in regard the Sun by analogy is more favourable in this respect, than by his debility contradictory. Understand the same in other cases of like nature.⁴
 11. Saturn in Conjunction with Jupiter in Virgo is most powerful, and overcomes in his effects; but if they are conjoined in Aries, then Jupiter is strongest, and becomes Victor.⁵
 12. The Luminaries are to be considered as more powerful and significant than the rest of the Planets; therefore any of the Superiors in Conjunction with the Sun in Leo influences much power and honour to the native by virtue of the Sun, &c. So if Saturn be in Conjunction with Jupiter in Sagittary the Dignities of Jupiter, then Saturn acts in dependence to his Dispositor, & sic de cæteris.⁶
 13. Any Planet strong in a good house or part of the Heavens, is of good signification; but much better, if the Planet be a fortune by Nature, & contrà.

³ Comment: a very interesting remark from an experienced and knowledgeable astrologer and physician.

⁴ Comment: what is being explained is that the Sun performs better when conjunct a dignified Saturn, even though it is itself in fall in Libra. Thus the Sun is less debilitated than when in its own sign of Leo and conjunct a very debilitated Saturn.

⁵ Comment: this is generally true that when in conjunction the more dignified planet overcomes.

⁶ Comment: this is reinforcing the previous teachings.

14. A malefick Planet weak in the 10th house of a Figure denies Honour; if they behold either the Cusp or Lord thereof by any malevolent Aspect, then many impediments or obstructions prejudice or hinder the natives advancement. Mars in the Mid-heaven strong usually portends military preferment, dignity, or profession, &c. A malefick by nature and determination doth oftner hurt than help by good Aspect.
15. Saturn or Mars strong in a good House of a figure are as discords in Musick, corrected to effect a Concord or Harmony in sounds; so when they are well affected, they cause imperfect good by evil Arts, or difficult ways, means or methods, always accompanied with danger, trouble, or infelicity. In fine⁷, their good is always mixed or tempered with something of evil, because they are naturally more propense to effect evil than good: As for Example, Saturn in the second house or Lord therefore, and strong, gives riches by rapine and covetousness, in the 7th he denotes the death of the wife.
16. A malefick Planet meanly affected in a good house neither gives nor denies the portents thereof, but often times obstructs or prevents what is naturally signified thereby, so Saturn denies honour, riches, &c. As for Example Saturn meanly affected, viz. peregrine in the second house neither gives nor prohibits riches, but retains them being gathered by sparing and penuriousness. Mars so posited and ill affected dissipates or destroys an Estate by prodigality and other imprudent expences, &c.⁸
17. Saturn debilitated in the 11th house of a Nativity produces trouble with or by the means of friends unrelated and the analogy of a malevolent prevails, Saturn or Mars by their Sextiles or Trines strong, and Jupiter and Venus by their Squares or Oppositions meanly fortified, produce or effect a mean good or evil as to the quantity, quality, and duration, and by difficult ways or means: so Saturn or Mars strong, or Jupiter and Venus meanly affected in a bad house or place of the figure, only extenuate or mitigate an evil.
18. An Infortune in Conjunction with a fortunate Planet is either impeded or depraved of the good signified. For though the fortunate Planet be in his own house, yet he partakes something of the Nature or Analogy of the malefick Planet with whom he is conjoined.
19. Three Planets or more act jointly and severally according to their respective natures, and their heavenly and earthy states, but principally according to the nature and state of the most strong and ruling Planet.
20. If an Infortune (especially Saturn) be placed between two Planets which are in conjunction, he prevents or retards the good promised by the other two Planets, the nature or kind whereof is discovered by the house of Heaven wherein such a Congress is made.

⁷ "in the end".

⁸ Comment: when Saturn is only weakened by lack of essential dignity, it neither gives nor takes resources, but it does imply hard work in obtaining them.

21. The Lord of the Ascendant applying to the Conjunction of the Sun in any Nativity, shews the Native apt, or delights to converse with Honourable persons, Grandees, and such like; as also will be ambitious of Fame, Honour, and Dignity, &c. If he apply to Saturn, the native affects to converse or associate himself with Plebeians, Rusticks, and inferiour persons: he is subject to envy, fear, pensiveness, and covetousness, &c.

